When I was a child, I absolutely adored Harry the dog, and I was delighted to find him still in print nearly forty years later. My husband is a great fan too, so I recently bought a new copy of 'Harry by the Sea', partly for old time's sake and partly to introduce Harry to the next generation.

Bing: Harry By The Sea

Harry the dog likes the seashore, except the heat. Harry's human family likes everything about Harry, except his tendency to crowd their beach umbrella and wreck their sandcastles. As Harry sits alone by the water's edge, a big wave crashes over him, leaving him covered with seaweed and looking like "something from the bottom of the sea."
