Naomi's Room is just what I'd been missing. In fact, it's great! The story is told from the perspective of Naomi's father, who recounts how his four-year-old daughter went missing on Christmas Eve and was later found murdered. He and his grieving wife soon begin to hear strange sounds up in the attic and in Naomi's room.

The Living Room is a peer-led alternative to the traditional ER for those with mental illness crises. The Living Room is a comfortable, non-clinical setting that provided the guest a safe and calming atmosphere where he or she can talk with a peer counselor. The guest is first assessed for safety and is asked for preliminary information.

Living Room - Naomi Home

NAOMI IN THE LIVING ROOM. Naomi, when visited by John and Johnna, her son and daughter-in-law, is alternately friendly and insulting. Johanna copes her best, but when John changes his clothes to look like Johanna, things start to unravel. Naomi barely notices any differences, but throws them both out of the house, then decides she's had a nice time!

Naomi in the Living Room and Other Short Plays: A ...

Naomi in the Living Room 2 Theater production requires considering a number of factors to be put in place for it to flow smoothly. For Naomi's performance in the living room, the producer needs to have organized the stage such that it can serve both a living, dining room, and a door that would be connecting these two rooms to the others in the house.

Naomi's Room by Jonathan Aycliffe - Goodreads

The play begins with Naomi giving a very descriptive tour of her house to John and Johnna. It starts (and ends) in the living room. She seems to invent the function of each room as she prattles on, but she really nails the living room. In her words the living room is where, " [We] do all the living."
