The Street Summary - eNotes.com

The novel opens as Lutie Johnson walks the uninviting streets of Harlem looking for a new apartment for herself and her 8-year-old son, Bub. The streets are dirty and empty and the harsh wind outside does “everything it could to discourage the people walking along the street,” (2). Despite this harsh environment, Lutie is determined to find a new apartment, so she and Bub can move out of the one they currently share with her father, Pops, and his girlfriend, Lil.
