There is NO nest, just a bird (or two birds, I can't tell) that comes at night and tucks itself in the corner of the awning roof, at the low end. I can't see it's head because it is all curled up onto itself. I have a motion light that goes on and off, and we go in and out the door with the dog several times at night, and the bird never moves. In the morning, it is gone. Then the next night ...
